FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

9. Defendant, Tradewinds Construction Inc., was bound at all relevant times by a collective bargaining agreement with the Union, which, by its terms, became effective July 1, 1996. Said Agreement provides, inter alia, that the defendant shall furnish its books and payroll records when requested by the Benefit Funds for the purpose of conducting an audit to ensure compliance with required benefit fund contributions and for the submission of disputes to final, binding arbitration.

Upon information and belief, a copy of the award was delivered to the defendant (A copy of the award is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A" and made part hereof).

13. The arbitrator found that Tradewinds Construction Inc. had failed to comply with the Agreement as it relates to paying fringe benefit monies and directed it to furnish the Plaintiffs with any and all books and records, for the period of August 9, 2003 through October 7, 2006 including but not limited to, the cash disbursement section of the cash book, general ledger, job location records, daily time records and all certified payrolls.

14. The arbitrator also found that Tradewinds Construction Inc. was required to pay the funds a sum of $2,350.00 pursuant to the Agreement, representing costs incurred in the arbitration.

15. The defendant, Tradewinds Construction Inc. has failed to abide by the award.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against defendant as follows:

DEFAULT AWARD

Tradewinds Construction Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer") and the District Council of New York City and Vicinity of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, are parties to Collective Bargaining Agreements, dated July 01, 1996 and thereafter, providing for arbitration of disputes before the undersigned Arbitrator as Impartial Arbitrator, and in which the Employer has therein agreed, for the duration of the agreements, to pay contributions toward employee benefit funds (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Funds"). The Funds, as beneficiary of the Collective Bargaining Agreements, have standing before the Arbitrator. In accordance therewith, the Funds, by a April 10, 2006 Notice of Intention to Arbitrate, demanded arbitration. The Funds alleged the Employer failed to permit the Funds to conduct an audit of its books and records for the period of August 9, 2003 through to date to determine whether it is in compliance with its obligation to contribute to the Funds. A Notice of Hearing dated August 12, 2006 advised the Employer and the Funds that the arbitration hearing was scheduled for September 27, 2006. The Notice of Hearing was sent to the Employer by regular and certified mail. A United States Postal Service Certified Mail Return Receipt evidences delivery of the Notice of Hearing to the Employer.

On September 27, 2006, at the place and time designated by the aforesaid Notice of Hearing, Steven Kasarda, Esq. appeared on behalf of the Funds. Despite the Employer having been sent notice of the proceeding and the claim against it, no appearance on its behalf was made. Also, no written, mutually agreed upon waiver by the parties to adjourn the proceeding, as required by the Collective Bargaining Agreements, was presented. The arbitration proceeded as a Default Hearing. Full opportunity was afforded the party present to be heard, to offer evidence, and to examine witnesses. The Funds thereupon presented their proofs to the Arbitrator.

The uncontroverted testimony and evidence established that:

- During the August 9, 2003 to date period, the Employer was bound to Collective Bargaining Agreements with the District Council of New York City and Vicinity of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.
- The Collective Bargaining Agreements obligated the Employer to make certain payments to Fringe Benefit Trust Funds on behalf of all its carpenter employees pursuant to schedules set forth in the Agreements.
- The Collective Bargaining Agreements authorized the Funds to conduct an audit of the Employer's books and records in order to verify that all the required contributions were made to each of the aforesaid Fringe Benefit Trust Funds maintained by the Funds.
- In accordance with this auditing provision, an accountant, employed by the Funds, sought to conduct an audit of the Employer's books and records. In violation of this auditing provision, the Employer did not consent to an audit of the Employer's books and records.

AWARD

Based upon the substantial and credible evidence of the case as a whole:

1. Tradewinds Construction Inc. is in violation of the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreements;

2. Tradewinds Construction Inc. is ordered to permit and facilitate the Funds conducting an audit of its books and records for the period of August 9, 2003 through to date to determine whether it is in compliance with its obligations to contribute to the Funds;
3. Tradewinds Construction Inc. shall pay to the Funds forthwith the Funds' counsel's fees, the undersigned Arbitrator's fee, and all associated court costs in the following amounts:

Court Costs	$ 350.00
Attorney's Fee	1,500.00
Arbitrator's Fee	500.00

TOTAL $2,350.00

4. Tradewinds Construction Inc. shall pay to the District Council Carpenters Benefit Funds the aggregate amount of two thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($2,350.00) with interest to accrue at the rate of 10% from the date of this Award.
